To the Members of the Cabinet,
South Congregational Church,
Peabody Mass.

Dear Friends:- The interval since our last meeting on March 5th has been one of intense activity in the church. We have planned and conducted a series of lenten services covering seventeen evenings, addressed by nine different speakers. We have prepared and presented our Easter services, conducted two training classes, and carried on the usual routine work of the church.

The pastor has attended in his official capacity fifty-two meetings of various sorts directly connected with the work of the church. He has prepared and delivered ten sermons, conducted one funeral, and made twenty-six pastoral calls, and is still alive to tell the tale.

The anniversary communion service on Thursday night of Passion Week was, I am informed, the first service of the kind ever held in this church. The pastor believes it to be worthy of repetition annually. On account of the close proximity of this service to the regular May communion (within ten days), and because of the fact that the demands of the special meetings and training classes on the pastor's time have been so great as to prevent him from gathering up the results of the awakened interest among our young people, the pastor believes that a special reception service for church members-to-be should be held during the latter part of next month - perhaps May 24th, and he suggests that if there is no objection the observance of the sacrament be deferred until that date, to permit him to visit those who contemplate public profession of their faith and if possible secure their applications for church membership. We have shaken the tree, let us not drive away until we have picked up all the apples.

Respectfully submitted
